1.0 INTRODUCTION

1.1 Preamble

- 1.1.1 The Guidelines on Accessing Retirement Savings Account (RSA) Balance towards Payment of Equity Contribution for Residential Mortgage by RSA Holders (The Guidelines) is in line with the provisions of Section 89 (2) of the Pension Reform Act (PRA 2014), which allow RSA holders to utilize part of their retirement savings as equity contribution for the purpose of securing Residential Mortgage, subject to guidelines to be issued by the Commission.
- 1.1.2 To give effect to Section 89(2) of the PRA 2014, the National Pension Commission (the Commission) engaged stakeholders in the housing development and mortgage financing sectors as well as the Pension Industry for the development of these Guidelines that would allow eligible RSA holders to utilise a portion of their RSA balance as equity contribution for Residential Mortgage.

1.2 Objectives of the Guidelines

The objectives of the Guidelines are to:

- 1.2.1 Set eligibility criteria for allowing RSA holders utilise part of their RSA balance for the payment of equity contribution towards securing a residential mortgage.
- 1.2.2 Establish documentation standards and implementation modalities for Pension Operators to process requests from RSA holders to access part of their RSA balances as equity for residential mortgage.
- 1.2.3 Provide access to equity finance for RSA holders in the Contributory Pension Scheme (CPS).
- 1.2.4 Improve the standard of living of RSA holders under the CPS by facilitating their ownership of residential homes during their working life.
- 1.2.5 Improve enrolment in the CPS by providing incentives to employees who are yet to open RSAs.

- 1.2.6 Provide a sustainable source of long-term finance to the mortgage sector and spur development in the housing sector.

1.4 Legal Framework

1.4.1 To issue these Guidelines, the Commission draws authority from Section 89(2) of the PRA 2014, which provides that “a Pension Fund Administrator may, subject to guidelines issued by the Commission, apply a percentage of the pension assets in the retirement savings account towards payment of equity contribution for payment of residential mortgage by a holder of Retirement Savings Account”.

1.4.2 The Commission also relies on the provision of Section 11(1) of PRA 2014 which stipulates that “Every employee to whom the Act applies shall maintain an RSA in his/her name with any PFA of his choice” and section 16(2)(d) of the 1999 Constitution (as amended) which stipulates that “the State shall direct its policy towards ensuring that suitable and adequate shelter are provided for all citizens in line with the fundamental objectives and directive principles of State Policy”.

1.5 Coverage

The provisions of the Guidelines cover:

- 1.5.1 Employees in active service or self-employed persons who are making monthly/periodic contributions to either RSA Funds I, II, III, V or Active Fund VI, registered with a licensed PFA and meets the eligibility criteria in Section 4.0 below.
- 1.5.2 Pension Fund Administrators (PFAs) and Pension Fund Custodians (PFCs) Licensed by the Commission to manage and keep custody of pension assets respectively.
- 1.5.3 Mortgage lenders licensed by the Central Bank of Nigeria (CBN) to provide mortgage financial services.

1.6 Form and Content

The Guidelines are divided into eleven Sections.

- 1.6.1 Section One is the introduction and it provides a background on the imperative for using a portion of RSA balance to facilitate residential mortgage as well as the objectives of the Guidelines. Section Two deals with Authorised Limit for equity contribution.
- 1.6.2 Section Three discusses the Rules of General Application while Section Four outlines the Eligibility Criteria for RSA holders and Mortgage Lenders.
- 1.6.3 Section Five covers the Application and Documentation processes while Section Six deals with the Approval of Equity Contribution and Notification Process.
- 1.6.4 Section Seven deals with the procedure for Remittance of Equity Contribution while Section Eight establishes the Termination of Application and Refund of Equity Contribution.
- 1.6.5 Section Nine deals with Returns Rendition processes, Section Ten deals with the Administrative Sanctions while Section Eleven covers the Review and Enquiries processes.
- 1.6.6 The requirements of these Guidelines are consistent with the provisions of the PRA 2014.

2.0 AUTHORISED LIMIT FOR EQUITY CONTRIBUTION

- 2.1 The maximum amount to be applied as equity contribution for residential mortgage shall be 25% of the total RSA balance as at the date of application irrespective of the percentage of equity contribution required by the Mortgage Lender.
- 2.2 Notwithstanding 2.1 above, where the value of 25% of RSA balance is more than the required equity contribution, the RSA holder can only access an amount equivalent to the equity contribution required by the Mortgage Lender.
- 2.3 Where the value of 25% of the RSA is lower than the equity contribution required by the Mortgage Lender, the RSA holder shall deposit the difference with the Mortgage Lender before 25% of his/her RSA balance can be applied as equity contribution.

3.0 RULES OF GENERAL APPLICATION

- 3.1 The RSA holder shall be in active employment, either as a salaried employee or as a self-employed person.
- 3.2 The RSA holder if registered before 1 July 2019, must have updated his/her records through the RSA data recapture exercise.
- 3.3 Application for equity contribution for residential mortgage shall be in person and not by proxy.
- 3.4 For the purpose of equity contribution for residential mortgage, an RSA holder can only access his/her RSA once.
- 3.5 The RSA holder and the Mortgage Lender shall indemnify the PFA on the exclusive use of the funds released from the RSA for payment of equity contribution.

- 3.6 Where an RSA holder had accessed his/her RSA balance for residential mortgage and 25% due to loss of job, he/she shall access lump sum at retirement in line with section 7(1)(a) of the PRA, 2014 subject to guidelines issued by the Commission.
- 3.7 Where an RSA holder had accessed his/her RSA balance for residential mortgage, he/she shall sign a consent with his/her PFA before accessing 25% due to loss of job.
- 3.8 Where an RSA had accessed his/her RSA balance due to loss of job, he/she shall sign a consent with his/her PFA before accessing his RSA balance for residential mortgage.
- 3.9 The PFA shall ensure that all applications for Equity contribution by RSA holders meet the requirement of these Guidelines.

7.1.0 Upon receipt of the documents stated in 6.1.5 and notification of readiness for disbursement stated in 6.1.6 above, the PFA shall remit the approved equity contribution into the applicant's account with the Mortgage Lender within four working days as follows:

7.1.1 Upon receipt of the documents in 6.1.5 and 6.1.6 above, the PFA shall issue a payment instruction to its PFC to remit the approved amount to the Applicant's account with the Mortgage Lender within two working days.

7.1.2 The PFC shall remit the approved amount for equity contribution to the applicant's account with the Mortgage Lender within two working days upon receipt of the PFA's instruction.

7.1.3 For joint application, the PFA of each applicant shall issue a payment instruction to its PFC to remit the approved amount to the applicant's account with the Mortgage Lender within two working days.

7.1.4 Upon receipt of the equity contribution, the Mortgage Lender shall issue a confirmation letter to the PFA, confirming receipt of the equity contribution within one working day of the receipt of the equity contribution.

8.0 TERMINATION OF APPLICATION AND REFUND OF EQUITY CONTRIBUTION

8.1 The Mortgage Lender shall notify the Commission in the event of foreclosure of the mortgage property.

8.2 In the event of death of any RSA holder in a joint application before the execution of the “Deed of Assignment”, the surviving partner shall have the following options:

- I. Proceed with the mortgage application until termination where cash flow is considered adequate
- II. Terminate the application where cash flow is considered inadequate
- III. Downscale the property to a smaller property that will accommodate the cash flow of the surviving partner. In this instance the applicant will start the application process afresh

8.3 Where the RSA holder or the Mortgage Lender could not continue with the mortgage for any reason before the mortgage loan is approved and disbursed, the party that decides not to continue shall notify the PFA within one working day of arriving at such decisions.

8.4 If the property that has been presented becomes unavailable before the mortgage is approved and disbursed, the Mortgage Lender shall notify the applicant and the PFA within one working day of determining the unavailability of the property.

8.5 Where the RSA holder or the Mortgage Lender could not continue with the mortgage for any reason before the execution of the “Deed of Assignment”, the Mortgage Lender shall refund the equity contribution to the PFC within two working days after which such decision was made.

9.0 RETURN RENDITION

(a) The PFA and PFC shall forward details of payments made in respect of equity contribution for residential mortgage on monthly and annual basis to the Commission in a format to be provided.

(b) The PFA and PFC shall forward return on the records of rejected applications with reasons on monthly and annual basis to the Commission in a format to be provided.

- (c) The PFA and PFC shall forward return on the records of equity contribution refunded by the Mortgage Lender with reasons on monthly and annual basis to the Commission in a format to be provided.
- (d) The Commission shall reconcile its records on all approvals in respect of equity contribution for residential mortgage and the returns rendered by PFAs and PFCs on monthly and annual basis.

10.0 ADMINISTRATIVE SANCTIONS

PFAs and PFCs shall be liable for administrative sanctions (monetary/non-monetary) as may be determined by the Commission from time to time for infractions/violations of the following provisions of these Guidelines:
